Elevator Reconstruction Planned to Begin During Fall Break

The Law School's ancient Westinghouse elevator was installed when President Eisenhower was in the White House — and updated when President Reagan was there. So it's long overdue for an overhaul. The work is planned to begin during the fall break. The mechanicals will be removed and completely rebuilt, and the interior will be refurbished. The result will be a much more pleasant and reliable ride, but the elevator will be out of commission for the rest of the semester.

We would like to ask you to use the stairs to move throughout the building during this period. If you are not able to do so, the library elevator is available for your convenience. To gain access to the library (and then to the elevator) from the ground floor, you may enter through the double doors next to the SBA Bookstore. To gain access from the second or third floors, faculty and staff may use their SMAF key. Students who are not able to use the stairs have been contacted individually and given a key, but if we have left anyone out, please see Dean Turchi. The alarms have been deactivated on the inside of the library doors so you can exit without setting them off.

Thank you in advance for your understanding. If you have any questions or suggestions, please see Linda Fariss in the library or Dean Turchi in 240.

Kaplan LLM Bar Review Course Info Session

Graduate students who are planning to take the New York bar exam are encouraged to attend a live online info session to learn more about the resources Kaplan provides to help you prepare. Friday, October 10, room 124, 11:00 a.m. - noon.

IU Art Museum Reception Hosted by Milt and Judi Stewart

Milt Stewart, JD '71, and his wife, Judi, invite you to the IU Art Museum on Monday, October 13, 2014, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. to enjoy drinks and hors d'oeuvres and tour the galleries. Food will be provided by Feast Bakery and Café and will include options for vegetarians and vegans. You won't want to miss this wonderful opportunity to hear from Dean Parrish, Mr. Stewart, and Heidi Gealt, the director of the Art Museum, and receive a tour of the Western Art Gallery and special exhibition. Law school faculty and staff will also be in attendance. RSVP to lawalum@indiana.edu no later than October 7, 2014. Business attire. Parking is available in the IMU lot and on the top level of the Jordan Avenue garage.

Spring National Security Law Course and Simulation Exercise

As an extension of his spring national security law course, B574, Professor Delaney has the opportunity to enroll four Indiana Law JD students in a multi-day, inter-school crisis law simulation exercise hosted by Georgetown Law. Students must be enrolled in B574 this spring to be eligible for the March 26-29 exercise. Please contact Professor Delaney by email as soon as possible (dgdelane@indiana.edu) if you are interested in participating in the exercise, or simply to discuss the possibility in greater detail. Your response will not bind you to enrolling in B574 or participating in the exercise, but the level of student response will help determine whether to accept Georgetown's invitation. If there is sufficient student interest, a selection process will be established to identify the law school's four participants.

Soctoberfest Is Here!
